Commentary

LCH returned +2.2% in May and is +6.7% for 2024 YTD.

Strong US equity market performance was again significantly driven by large cap tech but LCH's diversified Equities-Long Biased managers generated a +2.6% return during the month, in line with the S&P 500 Equal Weight Index.

Additional positive performance was again provided by Macro and Other managers for the fifth consecutive month in 2024 YTD, generating +11.7% returns on a weighted basis for the period.

During the month the investment advisory committee met with nearly all of the fund's underlying managers resulting in relatively limited proposed allocation changes, reflective of much improved risk-adjusted returns following more significant changes already made.
